SUPERIOR COURT OF CALIFORNIA, COUNTY OF CONTRA COSTA

DRIVING UNDER THE INFLUENCE (DUI)

VEHICLE CODE SECTIONS 23152 (a) or (b)

Driving after you have taken drugs or alcohol is not safe! You can hurt yourself or someone else, and the court can make you:

- Pay fines, mandated fine penalties, and fees when your car is impounded,
- Spend time in jail or prison,
- Lose your driver's license or driving privilege for 6 months,18 months, 3 years, or, in some cases, permanently.
- Have your car impounded or taken away permanently.

Your punishment might be even more serious if:

- Your blood alcohol level was .20% or more,
- You refused to do a chemical test,
- There was a child under 14 years of age in the vehicle,
- You are also convicted of reckless driving at high speed,
- You drive under the influence again and hurt or kill someone.

What if I am under 21?

- You will lose your driver's license or privilege to drive for 1 year.

What else can happen?

The DMV may also take actions against you, separate from the court. The court has no control over DMV actions.

You are hereby advised that being under the influence of alcohol or drugs, or both, impairs your ability to safely operate a motor vehicle. Therefore, it is extremely dangerous to human life to drive while under the influence of alcohol or drugs, or both. If you continue to drive while under the influence of alcohol or drugs, or both, and as a result of that driving someone is killed, you can be charged with murder.

I have read and understood the information above.
